Joy of a Journey

Company Profile

Welcome to Aheve Fun Safari

Aheve Fun safaris provides first-class corporate travel management services to international and national organizations in Uganda. We draw on extensive experience in business travel services and specialize in offering customized packages for each client. We strongly believe that corporate clients require a range of specific services which are crucial for the successful management of their travel programs. This is why we differentiate ourselves from conventional travel agencies and focus exclusively on designing travel solutions for corporate clients.

We take the time to understand our clients' needs. Dedicated account managers work with you to analyse your specific travel requirements. Our travel management strategy is based on your priorities and takes into consideration that you may have traveller profiles that require different levels of service. But we don't simply assist you in the booking of tickets and hotels but provide you with the tools to maximize your entire travel management system. Enhancing your travel policies, reducing corporate travel expenses without compromising service and providing hassle-free procedures are among the benefits we work towards with our clients.

The use of the latest technology in the travel industry enables us to provide you with state-of-the-art travel solutions. Our network systems can offer you "best fare" ticketing as well as comprehensive reporting through our Management Information System (MIS). Monitoring and analysing the travel patterns of your employees will enable you to exercise full control over your travel planning and budgeting.

Aheve Fun safaris has assembled a team of highly-trained and skilled travel coordinators in order to provide the highest-quality services to our clients. Experience and expertise are important factors for us when we chose our staff. Our team combines more than 100 years of experience in travel management.
